

THE BOULDER PUBLIC LIBRARY ANNOUNCES

A new HUMOR WRITING group being formed at the Library is aimed at speakers, comedians, and writers (particularly writers of nonfiction). In each session, we will learn and practice techniques recommended by comedy writers and others. There will be time for practice writing and to present our creations to the other group members. For some sessions, participants are encouraged to bring a rhyming dictionary and a Roget's thesaurus (his topic order, not alphabetical order).

For information, e-mail tc-a@toolsofwit.com or call 303-709-5659. Leader Thomas Christopher is a part-time writer, speaker, and seminar leader.

Meets the third Saturday of each month at 11 a.m.
Boulder Public Library Arapahoe Conference Room

11th & Arapahoe • 303-441-3100 • www.boulder.lib.co.us